WOODBIDGE – Elm Farm Road (Route 892) between Minnieville Road (Route 640) and Prince William Parkway (Route 294) will be closed to through traffic from 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 9 until 5 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 20 to replace a pipe culvert, according to the Virginia Department of Transportation.

Those needing to reach properties along Elm Farm Road will have access; however, drivers and bicyclists will not be able to go beyond the point of culvert replacement (between Lacebark Elm Court and 3475 Elm Farm Road) in either direction.

Through traffic will be detoured via Minnieville Road and Prince William Parkway back to Elm Farm Road. Drivers are asked to follow posted detour signs.

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼RSSThe magazine cover features a vibrant, abstract background of thick, horizontal brushstrokes in shades of blue, yellow, green, and pink. In the center, a large pink circle contains the title 'leisure' in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font. Below the title, the subtitle 'Your Guide to Recreation, Fun & Fitness in Prince William County' is written in a smaller, yellow, sans-serif font. Underneath the subtitle, the date range 'December 2023–April 2024' is displayed in a white, sans-serif font. Below the date range, the text 'Registration Opens December 12' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the cover, a photograph of three children (two girls and one boy) is shown. They are all smiling and have colorful paint on their faces and clothes. The girl on the left has red hair and is holding a blue paint container. The girl in the middle has dark hair and is holding a green paint container. The boy on the right has dark hair and is holding a red paint container. The background of the photo is the same abstract brushstroke pattern as the cover. At the bottom of the cover, there is an orange banner with the text 'PRINCE WILLIAM Parks & Recreation' on the left, the CAPRA logo in the center, and the website 'pwcparcs.org' on the right.
