On Tuesday, April 9th, Congresswoman Spanberger joined us at the McCoart Complex for a special presentation of a $2.5 million "check" for the Minnieville Road-Prince William Parkway Single-Point Urban Interchange (SPUI) Project from the FY24 congressionally directed spending package. This project is a major component for the commencement of the long-awaited Quartz District. I had the privilege of sharing some thoughts on this significant initiative as this exciting project is in the Neabsco District!

I'm proud to have played a pivotal role in securing the necessary resources to bring this vital infrastructure upgrade to fruition. This achievement underscores our commitment to enhancing transportation efficiency and fostering economic
